THAT'S MY GODFATHER

It was one of those quiet utopian nights, when everyone was very satisfied, if not somewhat bored. All of a sudden, birds were flying every which-way. Girls were screaming and boys were fainting. Doug Hopper was actually dancing. No other ASB President had ever taken such a drastic step toward stardom. But to keep things cool, fearless leader Mr. Fred Pasquale, affectionately called The Godfather, sat at a desk, kept a level head, and served cookies, which were delicious. Nights will never be the same now.

Pam -
Well, it's been really great knowing you. I wish I had besides in more classes have a just P.E. well, 13' 3' 74' a great summer and Bye! good!
Bye! Janice '73'

Jane,
 Even though we have had our differences I think we really have become great friends. Good luck and hope to see you this summer.
 Love Always,
 Pat

TRIPPING A LIGHTER FANTASTIC

Some people are just natural born show-biz freaks. Cec Handly had magic feet. Every amateur wanted a chance just like Monster, who smiled a Casanova sneer and said "Cholo." Yet ftj is perfectly at home licking onion flavored paper while Jean Kolberg carries her megaphone in an armored car. Mrs. Joanne Stevens loves to stare at desks and avoid cameras, and Helena Lisle enjoyed staring at the camera and staying away from desks.

Pam, I really your a really sweet person, hope you stay that way. P.E.
 it was fun having P.E.
 with you (when you came)
 Have a good summer and stay out of trouble.
 your friend
 Donna

THE ART OF GARDENING

Practically everyone was surprised and confused when Fred Bland appeared with flowers growing out of his eyes. Sun glasses were bad enough . . . but flowers? Mrs. Martha Moffitt was skeptic. She said it was an optical illusion.

Ron Walton was content to write about elections. The turning point came when Pat Brady grew a bush that overwhelmed her and disgusted Paul Delaney and Dave Hopper. Even the girls on the lawns wouldn't look anyone straight in the eyes. What next, crab grass?

Dam, I'm glad that I've known you for all these years. Hope you have a first year next year.
Take care of yourself and I hope we can see each other during the summer
Love always
Bobby Power

Dam, I can't say farewell to you for a friend.

FASTER THAN A SPEEDING BULLET

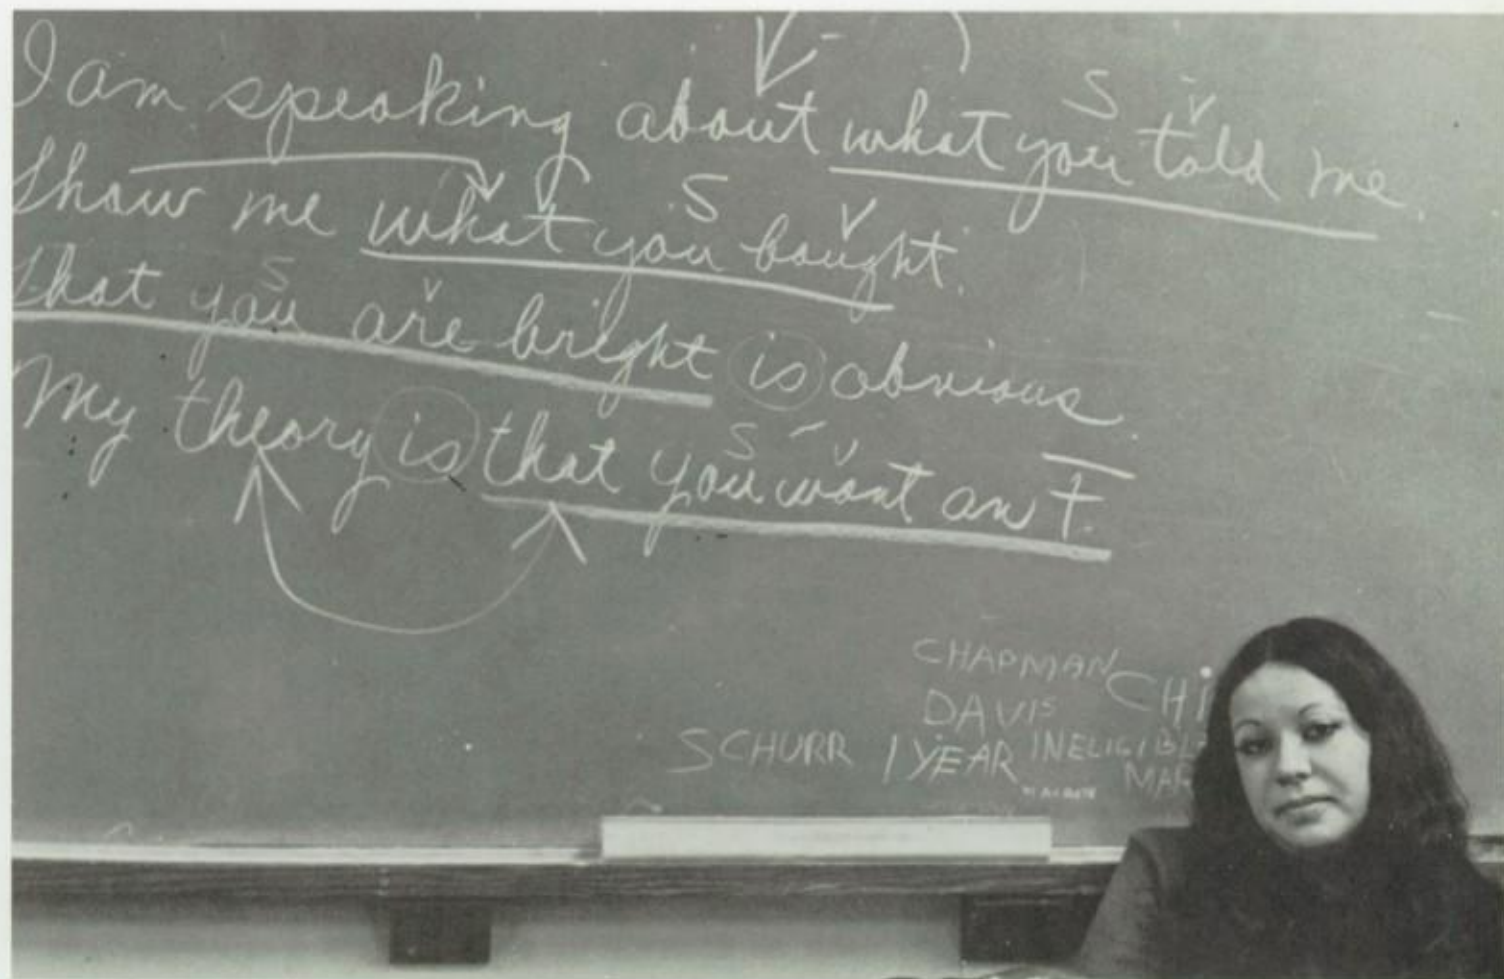

Everyone was assembled for the announcement of the new superhero. The event was very close because Tom Osbrink was sounding his trumpet. All the amateur superstars were practicing for the coveted position of the new hero. Mr. Regis Kearney had trained Troy Morgan and Renee Perrault had perfected a mighty scream; she practiced in the Echo Chamber up there on N. Madison some place — practiced and practiced. She can twirl a stick, too. The trumpet sounded once more, and Kris Leonard stepped up to the microphone and announced Jeanine Mamary the winner. Everyone was happy except for the man with his ears closed. There were SOUNDS in the hall, or was it the gym, that night, or was it the day. Confusion can run rampant, and the speed of such events can cause the head to spin. Nobody sleeps at an assembly, and everybody passes out Kleenex to the winners.

et was nice having you in P.E. have a far-out summer
see you next year
Mary Jo

Man was meant to fly. To soar. Suzie Trevino didn't like flying men and spent her time caring less about what arrows had to do with sentences. Mr. Jut Williams tried to tell Freshmen that not all birds had sets of matching golf clubs. John O'Gara spent his hours perfecting the art of telepathic typing but said it was all for the birds. The fine-feathered friends had all the answers but were too busy flapping to satisfy anyone.

Pam, I haven't seen you at all this year. I hope I see you in some classes next year. I hope I have a few summer
 friends.
 Sharon Baker

PERFECTING THE FEATHER PRINCIPLE

AN INVENTOR'S DREAM

PAM HAVE A NICE SUMMER
AND don't GET
IN TROUBLE
Todd

AND THEN SOME

It was a work period for every able bodied person. Mark Conley made a skeleton that looked like a plane, and he sat around looking proud. Mr. Curry Ramey made a microscope out of clay but swore that it was a chair. And Dave Pittman concentrated on printing his name, and Gwen Horne walked home. The best creation was a collage of Mr. Richard Hill's. He was disqualified because he stole a coke cup from the sacred Kitten Koop. The foot was nice anyway so he was given a lollipop, and he went back to the drawing board. We are absolutely convinced that things MOVE around here; it's good to hear the bulletin second period.

Pam,

It's been nice knowing you! Hope to see you next year. Good Luck in the future. Hope to see you in the summer!

Love,
Gail

OUR PAL JERRY

All the people on this lovely earth have secret occupations that remain unblemished by society. Mr. Jerry Simmons has many odd jobs that keep him moving. On Mondays and Tuesdays he poses as a Coney Island kewpie doll and on Thursdays prays for the sins of his people. The rest of his hours are spent telling Marilyn Bailey to smile and feeding Miss Marguarite Gear plastic food from the lunch palace of the gods. We all love him as a brother as well as a father. He dances well too; almost as well as the man with wax wings who does the boogaloo . . . inside-out.

So what have ya been up to?

MARK SPITZ FREAK,

Sam,
It's been fun this year. I wish I'd seen more of you. Good Luck this summer and in future years.
Love,
Karen

The days and nights grow wearily on, filled with ups and downs. Naturally, every able-minded being tries to find ways to shed a little levity upon this hallowed yet tedious existence. Comedy, like the kind distributed by Mr. Jack Christopher (and executed by Carl Hays and friend), makes this life a little easier. But not all are satisfied, as spat out by Wayne Leech. Miss Vivian Elmgren whispered secret non-committal statements to Mr. Robert Clarno. Who said that CHIVALRY was a thing of the past? Even Steve Car-nine is a bit knightly at times. Wonders never cease in this magical mysterious play. Ask Andy Osbrink or Sheila Lebrecht or Ron Walton. They have seen miracles that man has never pondered upon. Especially Steve Kosch, with his satanic grin and evil gestures, who opened the doors to movement. (He also plays nice mouth harp). It all comes out smooth . . . eventually.

Carl

UP AND DOWN . . .

Pam,
I really didn't talk to you much this year but you're a far-out person anyway. Have a fun summer.
See you next year.

FLY ME TO DUARTE

By now you know that we MOVE, but then there are those who refuse to restrict themselves, the Jonathan Livingston Seagulls among us. One snack-time, Danny Duck-Duck and a few of his cronies decided to fly (you know, that's like MOVING). So a group of teachers got together: Robert Opdahl, Bev Bartlett, Pat Dodd, Anna Conyers, Richard Meehan and Gladys Smith. Gave up their lunch period to weigh the matter. Result? A proclamation: "There is good and reason in us, in human beings, with whom fortune plays, and we can be stronger than nature and fate, if only for a few hours." This announcement excited a lot of people, including Nancy Mackenzie. And excitement wasn't the word for the reactions of Sam Spicer, Noreen Gallo-way, Becky Blount and Kaye Wesley. The skeptics in the Attendance Office would have none of it, so Addie Moak, Pat Bottema and Clovis Smith made out a tardy slip for old Danny. The Chess Club, however, could not accept this. All the members (Gina Capone, Gilda Yamamoto, Rocky Kim, Andy Thomas, Randy Wilson, and John Sanden) would rather MOVE than GROOVE.

ALL ABOUT THE BULLIVING DRIFTERS

The dream is over. Now is the time to be serious and speak of profound adventures. But there are drifters, these being Diane Steis, Tab Biggle, and Kim Elliot, that want to live life to the fullest. They have an office on West Foothill where they teach the fundamentals of advanced jokery. Jaime Smith was their first guinea . . . uh . . . customer. Behind the doors marked PRIVAT, Mrs. Jean Thurston was receiving obscene phone calls and Tom Blank was telling her what they meant. It was one of those magic occupations that everyone wanted to be in, except for the skeptics and sneerers. Greg Martin didn't really care. He was just there for the opening of NEW GERMANY. He got his ticket and went away happy. There is always a little bit of hope shining in the darkness, and that's not BULLJIVE (a Lebrecht word).

Pam,
We really didn't get to see much of each other this year but I know you well enough to say, stay out of trouble; for God's sake take care of yourself Have fun this summer
; take care of your boyfriend
Love always Barbara

AND THEIR MANY-FINGERED ESCAPE

Pam,
I'm not much on signing annuals so I'll just say that you're a real nice "Chick" and I've enjoyed knowing you this year.
Good Luck & happiness in everything you do in the future

Love Ya,
Doug "74"

SENTIMENTAL JOURNEY

marty

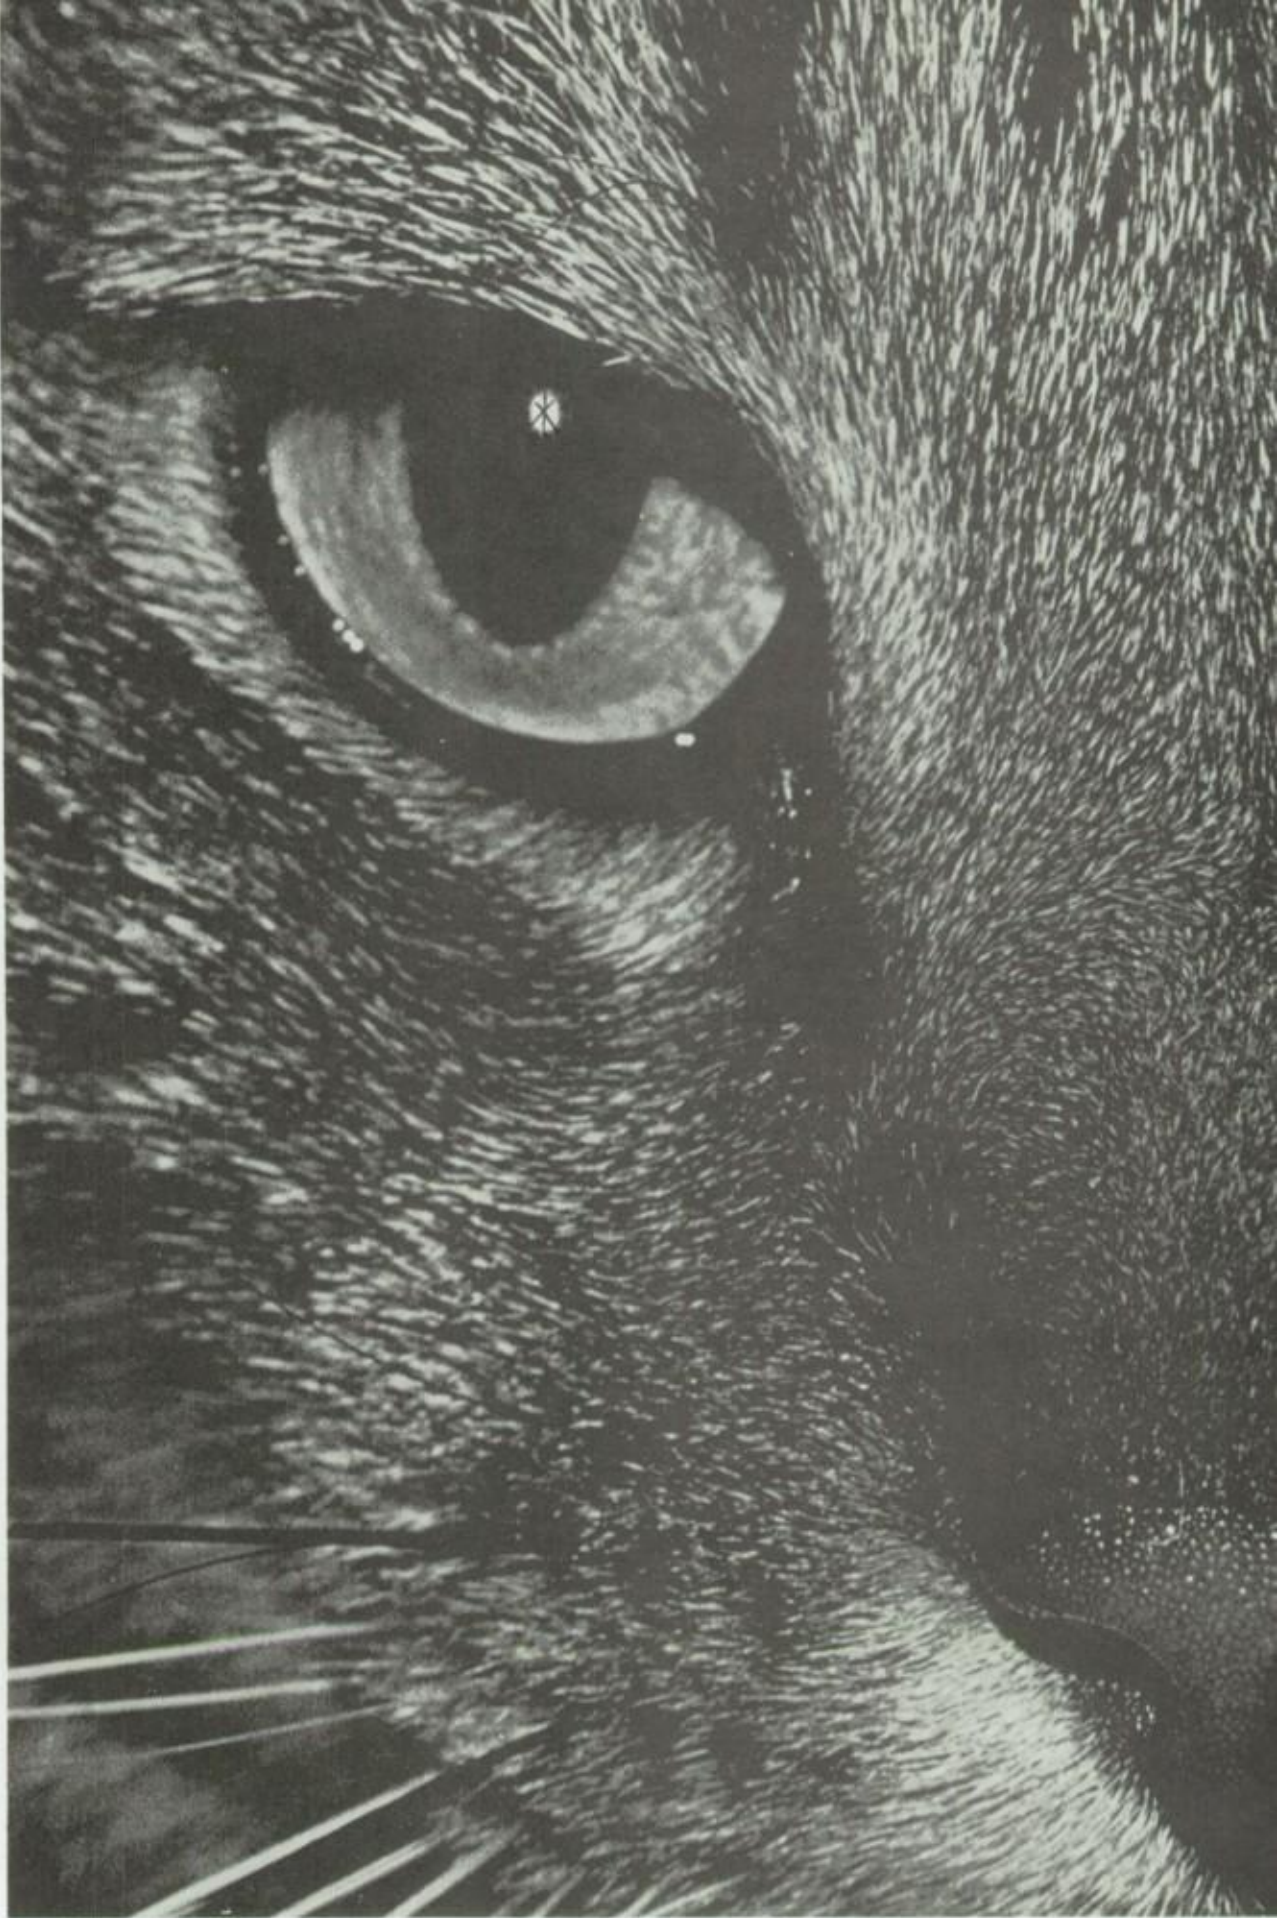

It was a time for remembrance. For thinking of times when we had to hold Doug Hopper up and tell Mr. Artie Jenkins that his mustache was superpluperfectMcThwirp. Miss Bertha Hernandez kept a record of all retrospections and even a few dreams (like the two dwellers in Dreamland). No matter how depressed, Martin Johnson always smiled and thought thoughts of sugarplums and rum mixed Nyquil, while strange white creatures danced in psychedelia (a very big word); Remembering days when even freshmen couldn't ignore Frank Zappa.

RIDES

Off across a journey to the North side of the mind.
Burnt your fingers on a voice, never quite got to be a million days old.
But wait.
O for days when tyme was a Spice in the coffee of the Elders.
the rose is slithering by.
the olds-mobile is dead.

CAT CLAWS

Everybody is naturally wild in some respect, with glistening eyes and terrifying growls. All except Patrick O'Connor, who quietly sits (or stands, rather) memorizing the dictionary. There are those that purr, even though they are outcasts, hence Jaime Williams. The pussycats are no different from the tigers. Debbie Burr growls with a grin on her face and Sheila Munkus always has her engines running. There are not too many cat fights, however. Ask Robert Smith, CHIEF OF SENIORS and he knows everything that is wisdom. Or ask Julie Champion, the pretty one. Ferocity, after all, is a rather tame thing . . . and sometimes cute. Even the claws don't hurt after awhile.

ON MY SIGN
I see my page because I hope I see some time because I like you do you very much. But I don't think you do you said that you like looking at me not when I look at you you turn away why
YOURS FOR ALWAYS
AND MAYBE some time too
JAIME W.

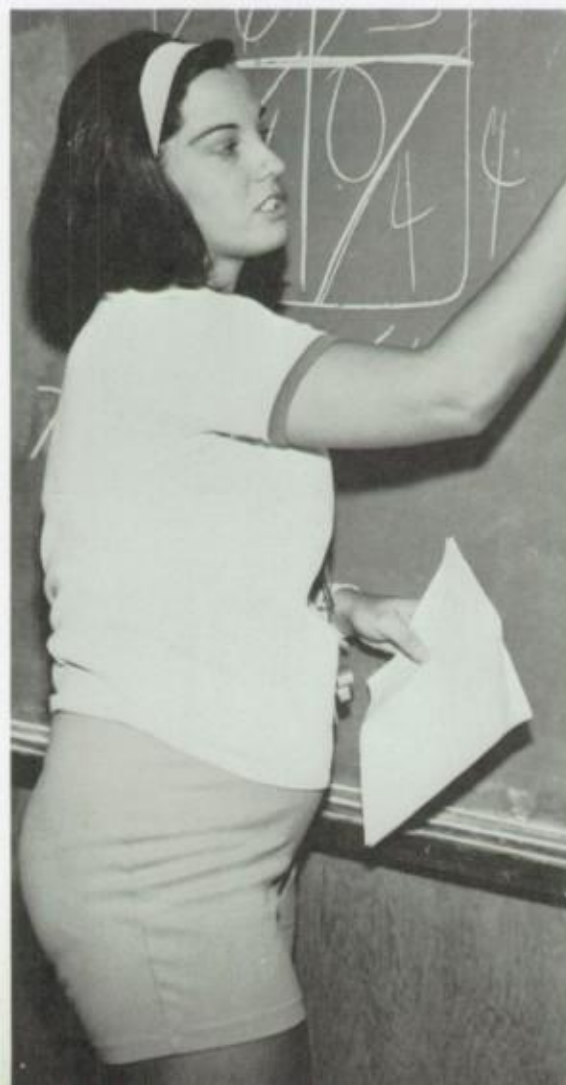

Debbie

Someone yelled that Jones was coming, truckin' off across the sky . . . probably Susan Motander. Jean Kolberg raised her glass and said "Here's to bubble gum!" Susan drank a concoction out of a stray thermos and hallucinated visions of talking jackets and ladies in shorts drawing numbers with their fingers. But, after all, it was just an hallucination . . . a bad dream, quite unlike Mr. Thornton, who, although not a great dream like Donny Osmond, is not a nightmare either. Everything went back to normal, with Lenowsky kissing skulls and kids holding up arches with their shoulders. But when Miss Linda Jones gets here, the light will shine . . . no matter how dim.

HERE COMES JONES

WELL, WE SWING THOSE DOORS

AND WE JUST BUST RIGHT IN

Kiss the past goodbye and embrace the days with and ahead of you. The door to the present must sometimes be broken down, at least according to Miss Linda Jones. Valerie McKeown and Kathy Sizemore agree but would rather much sandwiches and converse. The past as well as the present are filled with deep thinkers like David Montoya. And the future is guarded by the umbrella monster, Patricia Brady. "But old acquaintance is never forgotten," states Martha; "it just fades away!" All Linda Carnine could do was cry and cling to her friend.

Pam, have we more ~~class~~ far. We will have a class together. Mr. Stewarts class was a lot of fun even considering all the speeches we had to give.
I wish you the best of luck always

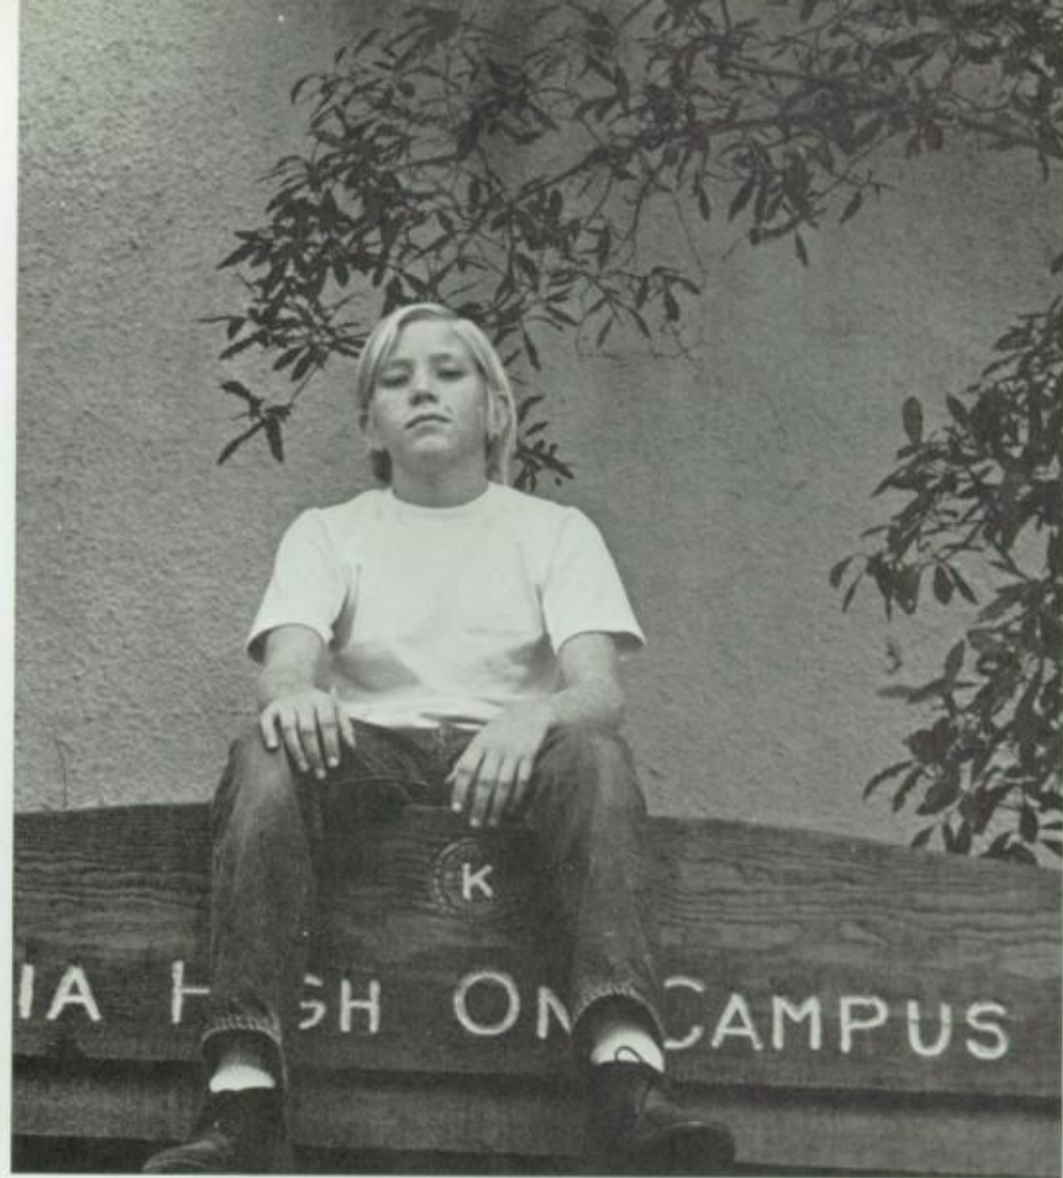

Love,

LOTS OF LOOKS

Many claim that those who are recognized for their appearance become or are vain and have within themselves some form of "high-class snobbery." However, for Jana Roach and Jaime Smith, this is far from truth.

Jana with her quiet mood reflects a sense of kindness and respect. Her concern for people is shown through her timeless involvement both in and out of MHS. Jana maintains her poise, charm, and awareness towards life.

Jaime managed to look good without being self-conscious. Seldom is anyone that good-looking also a nice guy, and Jaime is that. He shines in sports, too, and was King of the Rubber Band Fights in lower Main during fifth period.

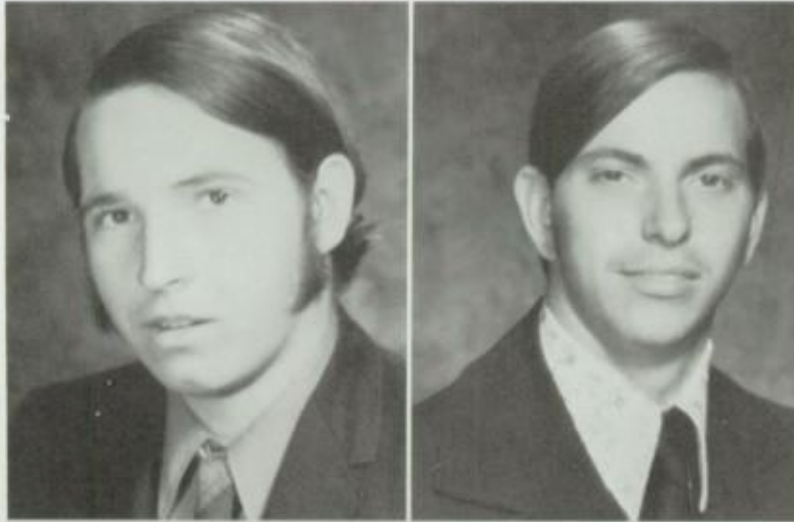

More striking than his good looks are his conscientiousness and dependability, and he seems to radiate more than the amethyst in the gold band on his finger.

Both Jana and Jaime were very popular choices for this honor.

DONNA, ANDY

The spiritual minds of Donna Klotzle and Andy Osbrink have brought to MHS a feeling of unity. Through timeless effort they have led us through a victorious year.

Donna, with her carefree personality, has a unique gift of bringing people together. With echoing cheers and cries, the ritual begins, a ritual involving emotion, thought and reaching a climax of a never-ending cry for victory. The realism of Donna's spirit is something MHS will always cherish and remember.

Andy is perhaps the mainstream of spiritual awareness, and has gained much recognition for his involvement in bringing to MHS something to strive for and a feeling that victory will come from unity. With the combination of his warm personality and his unique striving, Andy has made a victorious and spirited 1973.

FRIENDLY

Two of MHS's great personables are none other than Lisa Boulton and Todd Hooks. Without these two, laughter and happiness would surely be lacking.

Lisa gained recognition after her famous escape from Ward-D-Crazy? No, not Lisa. That kid has got a good head on her shoulders. Besides being pretty, Lisa is witty and outspoken. Involvement is Lisa's hobby. After making a quick change from her pep-outfit, she dashes to her Thursday morning meeting to preside over the Madquins. Behind those tinted shades lies a real person, whom all of us at MHS respect and admire.

Standing above the masses, the personable Todd Hooks has gained much honor and respect. As ASB Vice-President, Todd has aided in student affairs through timeless effort. Academically and socially, Todd with his unique personality has brought recognition to both MHS and himself.

Many stereotype an intellect as being boring and very much of an introvert. Neither Gigi Rosen nor Marvin Holmes demonstrate this type of attitude.

Gigi, an individual who many regard with high esteem, is beautiful, witty, and considerate to all. Being MHS's number one Gold Sealer, Gigi has not changed much since the early days of elementary school. She has a unique personality. It is really rare to find someone who a person can feel comfortable talking to about everything. Gigi — a unique person to remember.

The victorious athlete and scholar, Marvin, demonstrates high morals, for he is concerned with the humanistic aspect of life. With the combination of his extremely high athletic abilities and his intellectual qualities, Marvin is to be congratulated for his outstanding achievements, for both MHS and himself. Marvin Holmes — an intellect in every way.

THE GREATEST

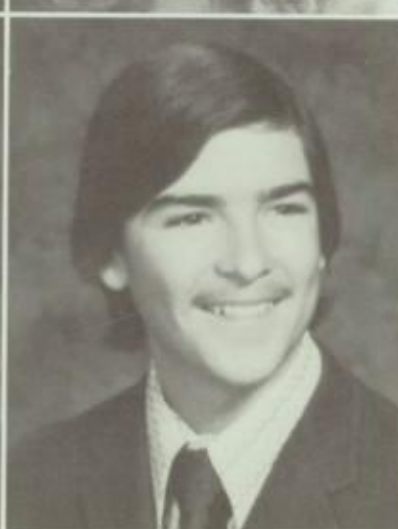

The rare and outstanding performances of Sheri Cowart and Doug Hopper have gained wide acclaim. Their achievements are individualistic . . . each with his own kind of stride.

It is rare to find anyone whose abilities are so diverse. Sheri may be remembered for her outstanding portrayals in the areas of drama, dance, and music. Along with being an individual of unique creative expression, Sheri has performed greatly academically. The ultimate of Sheri's success will be foreseen in the future.

Doug's outstanding abilities have been shown throughout the year. Being ASB President, Doug has strived to achieve goals which are needed to promote a comfortable educational environment. An outstanding athlete, Doug has also brought to MHS many a victorious moment. Doug — an individualist.

MONARCS, MADQUINS . . .

FORTY OF THEM

Everyone knew that there was something uniquely different about the class of '73. This became very apparent with the Monarcs and Madquins, especially within their uniforms. Instead of the so-called stereotyped navy blue and light blue, they changed these to burgandy and blue.

Forty dressed in burgundy and blue followed two "fearless" leaders — Lisa Boulton and George Bato, or are they better known as 'Bates and Bolts'?

Throughout the year both groups together and alone made efforts within the community, such as cleaning the Big M., the Monarc can drive, or the Madquins selling mistletoe or singing valentines.

Preparations started early in the summer for co-heads of Homecoming Melinda Brown and Josie Giacalone. Though hampered by rain, the half-time activities were still exciting and successful.

Joyce Mullen, whose qualities are both beautiful and rare, was chosen to reign queen over Homecoming. Joyce escorted by Pat Thurston, received her crown during half-time from Mr. Pasquale.

Her court included: senior princesses, Wendy Chapman, Debbie Rollf, Reesa Shook, and Monica Thompson; junior princesses, Sheila Krutzch, Barbi Livingstone, and Janet Robinson; sophomore princesses, Janet Shaw, Merri Shryock, and Susie Wattenberg; freshman princesses, Kathy Davis, Barbara Howel, and Pam Nakano.

SHAFTED!!!

WE WAS ROBBED

What can you say about a football team that goes undefeated and annihilates every team in its league on the way to the championship — and then is declared ineligible to compete in the CIF playoffs? How about "They was robbed!" Such was the case with the 1972 Monrovia Wildcat Varsity football team. The '72 season started out on a shaky note for coach Tom Paton's footballers. In the pre-season opener MHS was trounced by the Cantwell Cardinals, 52-13. Their next game was no better as the Green and White lost a hard-hitting encounter to crosstown rival Arcadia, by a 26 to 7 score. Already smarting from the two non-league defeats, Monrovia then received the biggest blow of all, just prior to the Mission Valley League opener against Schurr High School. The CIF-Southern Section informed MHS that due to supposedly illegal rule infractions, the Wildcats were being declared ineligible for a league championship. If the bad news affected Coach Paton's players, it certainly didn't show on the field. They went out and promptly beat Schurr 52 to 12. The next week, against Rosemead, which was a preseason choice to win the Mission Valley League crown, the charged-up 'Cats out-hit, out-played, and out-classed the Panthers enroute to a 26 to 7 victory.

Next on the list were the Matadors of San Gabriel, who succumbed to Monrovia by a 26-6 score. After that, the Green Machine trampled Mark Keppel 38-0 and then annihilated the Arroyo Knights in a 50 to 0 laughter. El Monte's Lions were the next to fall, as a rain-soaked Homecoming crowd watched the Patonmen slosh to a 38 to 7 win. In the MVL finale against Mountain View, the Mighty Wildcats again breezed past its opponent, this time by a 32 to 0 score, a fitting end to a perfect season.

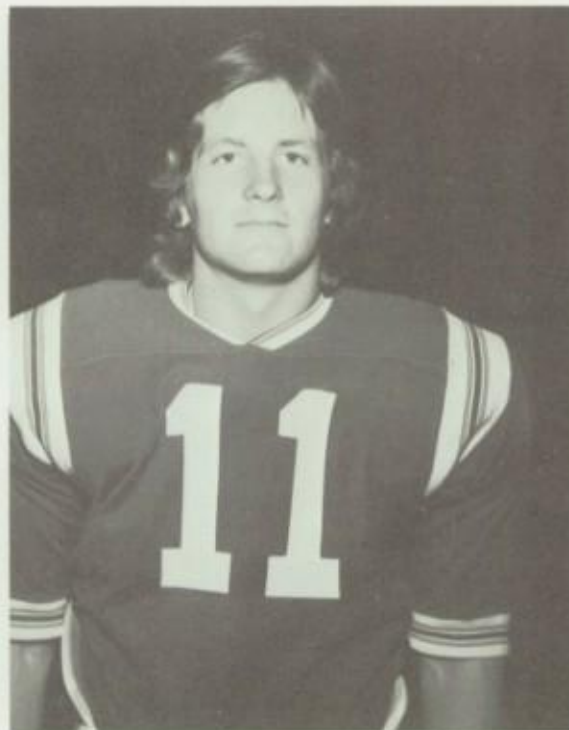

Two months after football season ended, a court of law ruled Monrovia was eligible to enter the CIF playoffs. Needless to say, the decision came two months too late. But the members of the 1972 Varsity team will long be able to treasure the memories of this past football season, as well as the joy of competing and winning together.

Still, one thought is sure to prey on the minds of all the players and coaches of the '72 team for a long, long time — "If we would have been able to go to the CIF playoffs, maybe we could have gone all the way . . ."

FUTURE APPEARS BRIGHT FOR WATER POLO AT MHS

The MHS Varsity water-polo team, under coach Bruce Cox's direction, had its share of ups and downs this past season. Although the "downs" slightly outnumbered the "ups," things look much brighter for the future. With only one player graduating, coach Cox will have a lot of good, experienced players to work with next season. This year is over, but just wait until next year!!

MONROVIA CAGERS FINISH WITH A FLOURISH

Incredible! A team finishes third in its league, and yet it still squeaks into the CIF playoffs. Then the team comes within a mere three points of knocking off the 3A's top-ranked team in the first-round playoff game. It could only happen in Monrovia . . .

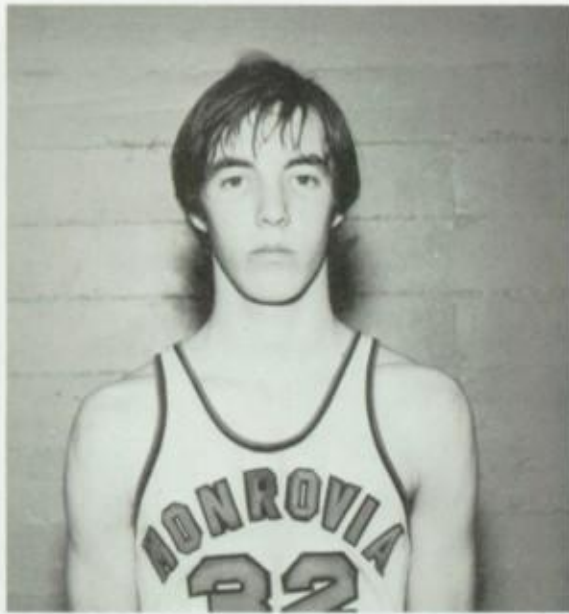

There are many things that could be said to sum up the '73 Varsity basketball season. Some would be good and some not-so-good. But one certain word works pretty well when describing the type of year the Cat cagers had — strange! At the beginning of the year, before Coach Arvin Wenzelberg's Green-Machine began Mission Valley League play, several changes took place. First, a few Varsity players left the squad, so a few more were brought up from the JV's to fill the gap. Then a couple that had left came back. Anyway, as soon as the team got together and settled down, it began to play good basketball. . . And win . . . most of the time.

The Wildcats finished with an 11-3 record, which was good enough for third place in the MVL. Of Monrovia's three losses, two came at the hands of league champ San Gabriel. The other loss was a one-point setback (a 'garbage' shot fell in at the buzzer) to second place Arroyo. At times during the season, the MHS team was brilliant. Other times, they were far from it. When the regular season ended, Monrovia luckily received an at-large berth to enter the CIF playoffs. Considering the high school's relations with the CIF SS front office, the Cats naturally were chosen to play the top-seeded 3A team, Murphy High. Though given little chance against Murphy, Wenzelberg's cagers gave a valiant effort before succumbing 48-45.

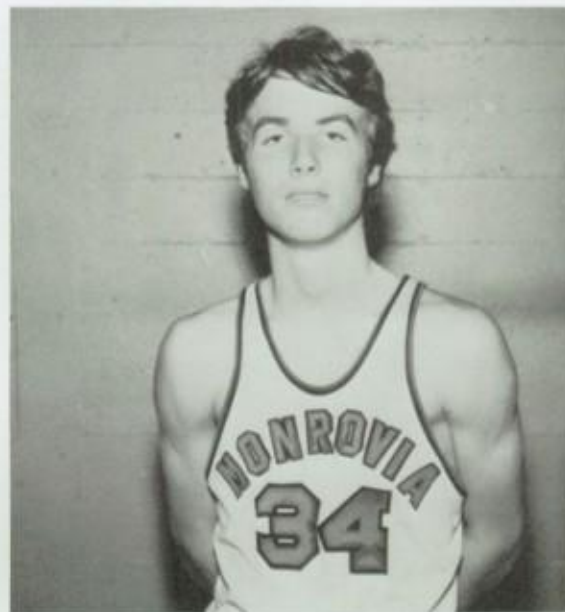

Finishing out their playing careers at Monrovia High were Seniors Todd Hooks, Stan Spicer, Chip Johnson, J. J. Sunyogh, Bobby Ponce, John O'Gara, and James Armstrong. Coming back for more next year will be Juniors Wayne Leech, Dan Ferrell, Robert Coates and Sophomore Fred Bourne.

Smart people have plants springing out of their heads, yes they do. People, like the Scholastic Whatever thing, make the lesser brains look a bit shadowed. But we love them like we do going to Farrell's on a Saturday night . . . even Mr. Sid Knowlton enjoys the smart people. He hopes that someday he can quit his job flagging wheel chairs down and be a clubbish brain. Lynn Williams and Steve Mackessy are. That's all there is to it. Mr. York has created an invisible commie-smasher. Mrs. Gail Jordan is in awe at his mental capacity and tries to make the telephone ring with her ears. Someday, perhaps, Miss Elmgren will pat us too, on the back. Out of the halls they departed, off to Filthy McNasty's en mass. Nobody wanted to stay here, but Ron Buckholtz thought he had expanded so much on cafeteria food that he wouldn't fit in anyone's car. "Too bad," said Chuck Thurman with a smirk, as he explained a Wildcat profundity to Steve Carnine. Karen Frederick first heard the news on her radio, but Harry Strubbe said he'd remain behind, taking notes in an empty classroom. Everyone moved. But Obie Graves returned first, not with tales of lust and wonder but with an ice cream and coke. "The place is overrated," he said. Many didn't return, so the staff was informed. Mr. John Daniels, asst. principal, smiled; Mrs. Linda Harding, Spanish teacher, lowered her eyelids; Mr. Harry Kawahara, counselor, thought he might counsel; and Mr. Gary Schram, resource officer, flexed . . . all of them perplexed. A black and white photograph showing a large, wet parking lot filled with numerous cars, likely from the 1960s and 1970s. The cars are parked in rows, and their reflections are visible on the wet pavement. In the foreground, a basketball court is partially visible, with a basketball hoop and backboard in the lower right corner. The background features a line of buildings, including houses and a church with a steeple, situated at the base of a large, forested hill. The overall scene suggests a rainy day in a suburban or small-town setting.

KALAMAZOO TO YOU TOO

Formally at the beach, we can doff our hats in salute to Good Things, one of which is the fact that KALAMAZOO is the Indian word for sneeze. On cue, Steve Martin sneezes as Miss Marty Davidson, Mr. Vern Conrad and Mr. Robert Clarno ignore the fact. Both Alex Hernandez and Ted Bristol make ready to follow Steve's lead. Interrupting a game, Mr. Tom Paton calls the office to warn the staff of a sneezing epidemic. Masses of teachers decide to use the information, squeezing it into their lesson plans, regardless of subject area. Inspired are Mr. Jim Stewart, Mrs. Mary McKesson, Mrs. Elizabeth Johnson, Mr. Robert Alcorn, Mr. Bruce Cox, Mr. Maynard Amstutz, Miss Lois Mayer and Mrs. Pat Grotewiel. JUST A BIT OF Mr.

D. Albert

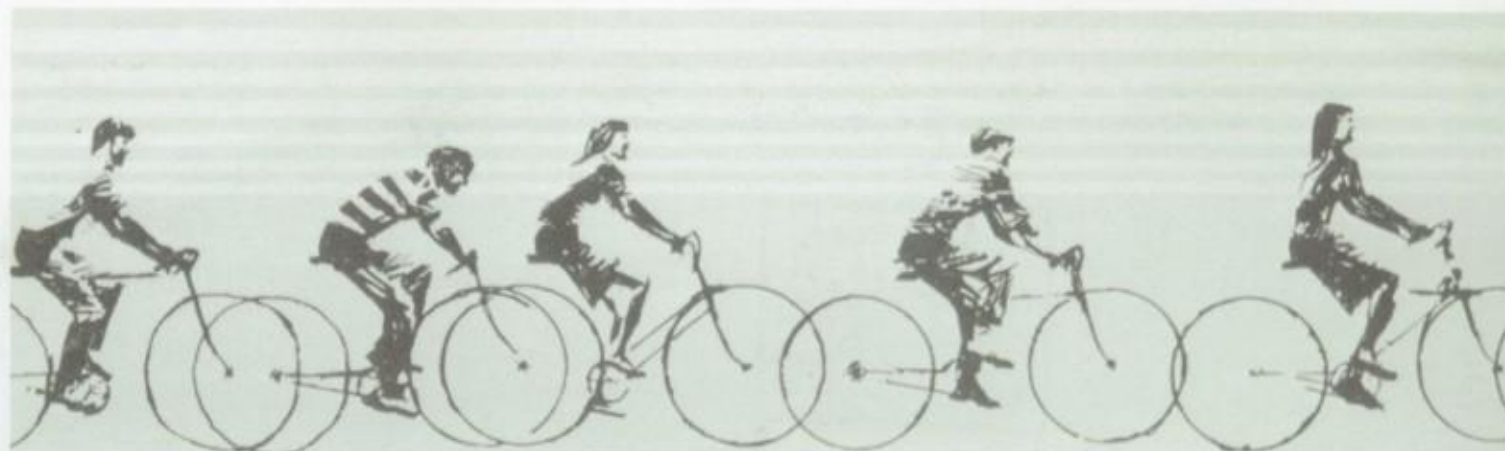

DOUBLE RUGBY (& FRIEND)

It was time for a game of sorts, a chance to be like Popeye or Joe Namath. So we elect a go-between, Mrs. Betty Bogolin, and start the fun. The starting lineup was Mr. Richard D'Albert, and his friends, John McDermott, a praying Hindu lady, the Modern Dance freakies and some vicious bull mooses (meeces?) that were passing by. The enemy was a bunch of smiling dandies and pretty misses that could sing the gollies. Nonetheless, it ended in a tie and they split a 1973 stalk of celery and a gold plated peanut butter and liverwurst sandwich.

Nice to end it all with formal singers: Tom Osbrink, Cheryl Harter, Patricia Robinson, Melinda Gimlick, Letti Thurman, Bill Egan; Diane Yi, Eloise McNichols, Karen Coke, Jill Wilson; Barbara Girou, Janis Kenney, Lori Thomas, Wayne Eggleston, Ed Olson, and, Future Business Leaders: Chris Hauk, Andy Hauk, Karen Pidirit, Gena Hagamen, Judy Fick, Lisa DeSouza.

TEAR THE WINGS OFF THAT FLY, BUCKO!

Just because we think our heads are straight does not mean we are heroes. We all have our weaknesses. June Reid has not yet learned to tie her shoes and has Gary Wrasse tie them for her, even though he can't find which way is the front. What can we say about those Krauts? They must have flaws, but they can't be found (even Miz Maryann). The cheerleaders (of course they are Sallie Sebring, Connie Weight, Tom Silcott, Andy Osbrink, Steve Kosch) know that we are number one, but Sallie and Connie disagree. They say we try harder. The teacher people just want their names spelled right (Mrs. Glenda Mack, Miss Anne Ackerman, Mrs. Lee Sear, Mr. Charles Clark, Miss Dorothy Clemmons, Mr. Lee Fender, Miss Lillian Stone, Mrs. Bernice Collins, Mrs. Muriel Rowe), and oh those Krauts: Glenn Harrington, Steve Carnine, Lee Kemper, Jack Kreinheder, Kathy Shipman, Mike Moore, Eugene Ilten, Karl Kraut, Tom Osbrink, Irene Hellwig, Mrs. Marianne Campbell, Gayle Van de Wetering, Kerry Dale, Debbie Gordon, Jan Mirly, Melissa Hoagland, Sabrina Gizzo, Debbie Taylor, Janet Wallick, Pam Crawford, Kathy Pierson, Monique Holmgren, RoseMary Welch, Grace Morimoto, Sue Motander.

YES, MARILYN, THERE REALLY IS A SONG GIRLS

Marilyn Bailey is sitting at a queen type desk wearing regal fifties-type drag and screaming, "Get it right this time, you shmuck!" So it's time to shuck the mystical and put on reality. There are helpers like Mistery Clovis Smith, Robert Culp, and James Farmer (not to forget Mrs. Lu dean Allred) to straighten the impossible out. And, yes, Miss Bailey, it's time for a NICE word about the lovely lovelies, the SONG GIRLS: Cindy Adams, Marilyn, Donna Klotzle, Gayle Ross, Sheri Cowart (Rhonda Brown down front). See how they all smile? Why give such a small picture to such a sensual experience. Should be a double-spread. But like the Spanish Club, we all must boogie on into Nirvana. Ask the WILDCAT STAFF: Editor Richard Elmore, Linda Paulson, Julie Leavitt, Dickie Smith, Mike Chamberlain, and Cal Benson; they do strange, exotic things (like Cat Quiz and those record reviews that Jeff Kenney dosen't dig). But it's that Roach-Pittman-Self-Boulton combination that gives us PEP. Whew! That about does it, shooby-doo-wah, Marilyn. SPANISH CLUB: BOTTOM: Ili Lobaco, Barbara Lubow, Ileana Regil, Monica Shipman, Debbie Salter. MIDDLE: Henry Nowakowski, Racnel Martinez, Lori Valadez, Diane Steis, Sandy Peterson, Giovanna Regil, Lynn Williams, Lorrin Jacobs, Marie Reddington, Kari Helman, Janice Manning, John Stehle, Dan Hernandez, Robert Smith, Cathy Newkirk, Stu Russell. TOP: Chuck Thurman, Vianne Munns, Jeff Grace.

LOST IN DEEPEST AMERICA

When Norene Galloway went to the hospital with her bad foot, the Pep Cats surrounded her face and saluted, not just because she's their leader; they liked her a lot. Miss Gladys Jahr (God, she's swell) sent Norene a card, as did Mrs. Tye (she's new here) and Morgan O'Brien grin-n-n-ned. Norene got better and came back. Thespians donned costumes and became very individualistic: TOP: Mitch Thomas, Steve Josenhans, Becky Fiore, Steve Kosch, Patricia Brady. MIDDLE: Susan Martin, Linda Scott, Valerie Knowlton, Linda Polsk, Roberta Banks, John Eddings. BOTTOM: Gail Dodd, Kathy Campbell, Leslie Sandford, Sallie Sebring, Robin Crisler, David Carter, Dianna Towles, Terry Arko, Dodi Gray, Melinda Brown, Sheila Munkus. Mrs. Sheryl Maslowe said she was prettier than her picture, but she used to go to school here; Mrs. Patricia Esters didn't, and she's prettier than her picture too. AFS members got tired of all this prettiness (they are all potential Pep Cats) and . . . well, Edgar Bourne yelled across the field that nobody is pretty. Everybody believed him. So nobody anymore is lost in deepest America. AFS: Gina Capone, Kathy Simmons, Marty Tomlinson, Debbie Salter, Melissa Hoagland; Nancy MacKenzie, Sue Woodling, Nancy Pancoast, Donna Klotzle; Sheri Cowart, Melena Phillips, Granne Ward, Melissa Glidden, Kathy Holden, Karen Steuve, Beth Gorny, Renee Perrault, Gayle Ross.

ORCHESTRA: Debbie Bowen, Tamson Beseke, Deidre Rosen, Monique Holmgren; Tara Snelson, Amy Kitamura, Laura Allen, Tammy Combs, Mike Romaine; Mary Teegarden, Debbie Gearing, Pam Rentschler, Lory Kitamura, Elaine Ozarowski; Robert Stevens, Scott Lee, Eric Jorgenson, Barry Russell, Brian Barnum; David Stenski, Mr. Knowlton. PALETTEERS: Roberta Keptner, Kathie Pittenger, Janet Shaw, Tim Anderson, Melissa Glidden, Teresa Reed, Lexis Stockman, Valerie Frye, Miss Clemmons, David Parker, Glenn Harrington, Brian Burnham. BLACK STUDENT UNION: Gwen Collier, Mickel Victor, Joyce Montgomery, Norman Ross, Daryl Winston, Calvin Benson, Larry Spicer, Divory Polk, Sharon Montgomery, Annette Slater, Marge Montgomery, Mr. Anderson, Donald Newsom, Henry Mills, Gwen Horne. GIRLS' LEAGUE: Sheila Lebrecht, Nancy Self, MaryAnn Romero, Renee Perrault, Nancy MacKenzie, Rose Leon, Diane Steis, Lisa Boulton; Chris Garber, Sheila Krutzach, Lindee Bickner, Leslie Sandford, Laurie Valdez, Linnette Wilmoth, Wendy Chapman; Cheri Herbst, Cynthia Montgomery, Sandy Carnavalle, Vera Bagneris, Julie Ahumada; Michell Jennings, Melinda Brown, Jane Gulgren, Debbie Klein, Sharon Leech, Sue Woodling.

"... I WANNA BE ELECTED"

Ah, look at all the people (didn't we do this last year?). Alas, time is meaningless, as the smiling faces glare from the glossy black/white ocean. Strike up a rejoicing chord! Ooo . . . listen to the BAND (and, yes, 'tis true, the ORCHESTRA). And there must be color and depth and perspective and the PALETTEERS; they seem to make life a little sweeter as they smile (even Dorothy) and look at the camera (look here, Lexis). And why does Cynthia Montgomery look so . . . uh . . . nice? Makes one wanna wolf howl. Oh how could we forget those wonderful ladies, Princess Asano, Higel and Densham, who make a visit to the counselor (little green slips, indeed) like a visit to Magic Mountain. And say "high" to the BSU: not only are they ultra fantastic, their dinners are good too. DANCE BAND: Mr. Knowlton, Mary Teaggarden, Brian Barnum, Steve Curavo, Barry Russell, Lory Kitamura, Scott Lee, Ron Leal, Mike Romaine, Robert Stevens, Eric Jorgensen, Laura Allen Debbie Gearing, David Montoya, Jean Peterson, Terry Wyn.

THERE ARE SYMBOLS IN "KATZ UND MAUS"

It was time. The sun had ascended to the correct height and weight. Mr. Alan Maxwell looked at the Banner Girls, seeking a title for his new movie to star Mrs. Lenore Lee as a motorcyclist-singer who makes it big. She is featured here with her back-up group. Ms. Patricia Esters knew better; she can divide hypotenuses to delta nine. For excitement the Majorettes posed symbolically as a monument to forgotten dreams. The movie was a smash, of course. Future Teachers reviewed it and found it unfit for young children, as you can tell from their smiles. Sue Motander walked off a disgust because she thought the book was better. But Frau Campbell rejoiced because the Deutsch subtitles were good, and at least it was more subtle than "Katz und Maus." Unfortunately, the sun set before they finished shooting the last scene, so it looks as if we will all be left in darkness.

WAIT 'TIL THE SUN SHINES, MISSY

It was a great windy afternoon. Melissa Hoagland decided to sit with the boys, saying to one of them, "Let me light your cigarette, big boy." Big Boy declined politely; he wanted to quit anyway. He demurely swallowed the skinny stick. But we still had to get some ladies, real ladies, into this book. So we lined some office groupies (their stage names being Mrs. Winnie Kroker, Mrs. Louise Dunford, and Mrs. Frances Berriman) and tried to make them smile like the pretty Publicity people (oh, sorry Dave!) and the very well groomed. Even Mr. Robert Long looked stunning as he took off his jacket and lit the sun up. Wow, it's enough to make one want to jump for joy, all of these exciting people. PUBLICITY: Sue Woodling, Cheryal Harter, Nancy MacKenzie, Dave Pittman, Melinda Brown; Kathy Simmons, Sheri Cowart; Debbie Klein, Gayle Ross, Cindy Adams, Marilyn Bailey, Darya Allen, Maura Cochrane; Ronda Brown. GROOMING: Gayle Van De Wetering, Sheila Krutzsch, Wendy Chapman, Nancy MacKenzie; Lynn Miller, Sandy Carnevale, Graine Ward, Melissa Glidden; Cynthia Montgomery, Diane Steis, Janice Benson.

BOOGIE THE MHS BLUES-S-S

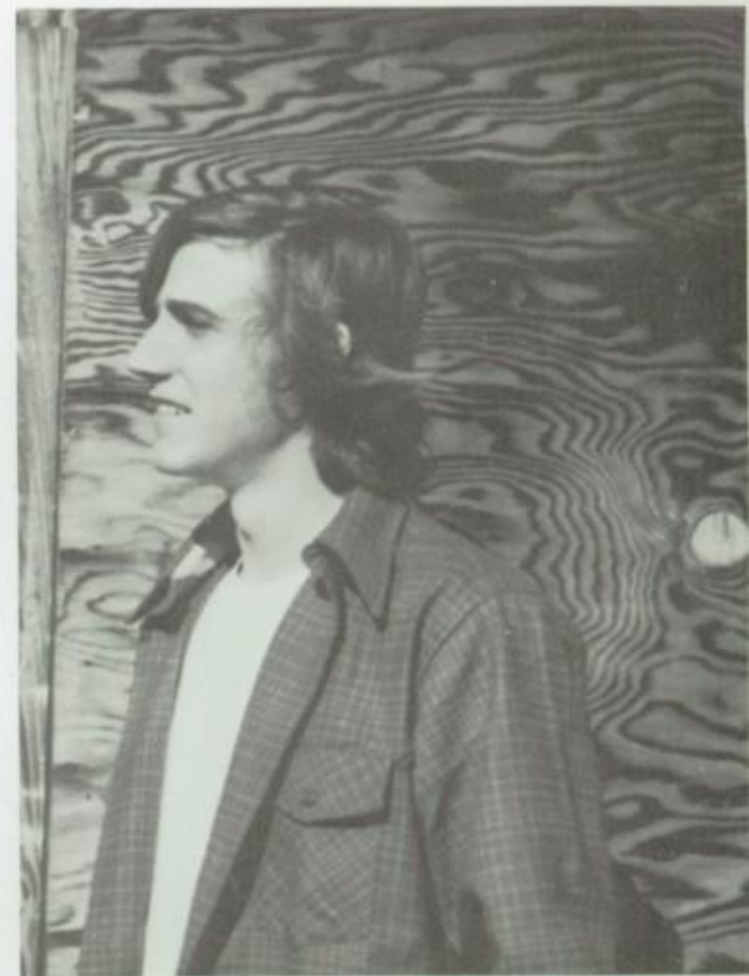

Cinque

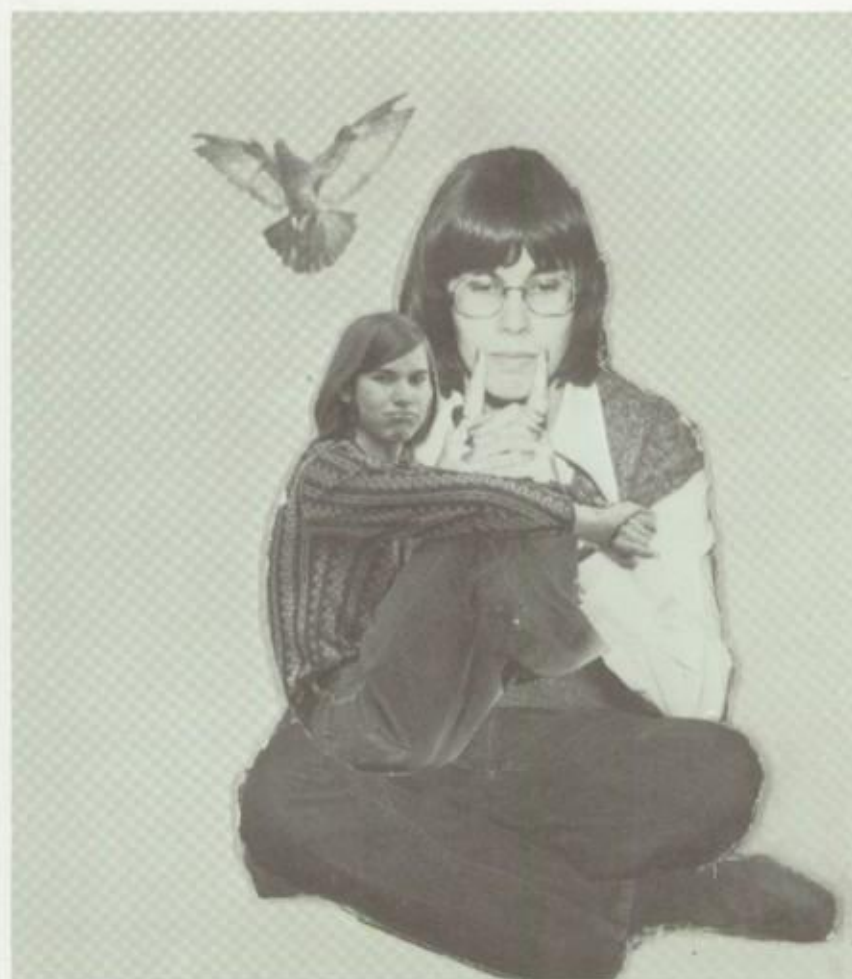

People say the MHSers are insane. Ask CHAMBER SINGERS: BOTTOM: Monica Thompson, Darya Allen, Sheila Lebrecht, Nancy Self, Sheri Cowart, Diane Steis, Becky Vella, Helena Lisle. MIDDLE: Marilyn Bailey, Melissa Hoagland, Peggy Vogel, Sandy Peterson. TOP: Lee Miller, Nancy MacKenzie, Andy Osbrink, Linda Trueblood, Richard Elmore, Bill Ionescu, Debbie Klein, Wayne Eggleston, Kathy Simmons, Sue Woodling. Chuck Thurman and the SPEECH GROUP will tell you that no one can bake a cake like MHSers (even the freshman types). And, of course, Kim Elliot and Tab Biggle (and how could we overlook those teacher types: Mr. David Brubaker, Mr. Virgil Stevens, Ms. Ruth Tillman, and yes, Mrs. Eileen Bunch) love to make life into a pleasure faire and isn't that the major plan? SPEECH: FRONT: Steve Carnine, Rocky Kim, Roberta Banks, Helena Lisle, Gina Regil, Ili Lobaco, Sue Motander, Andy Thomas, Josephine Leon. BACK: Chuck Thurman, Marty Tomlinson, Rachel Martinez, Joel Arroyo, Marie Newhouse.

To Pam
It was nice being with you this year of 13, and hope to be with you next year, so have fun and be cool. Love

ain,

Pam,
you are a far-out person + you're got a little personality. Stay as cool as you are and have fun this summer

Pam,

It's been fun having you in Stewarts class.
Even though you've been moved a couple times. Have fun this summer. Hope to see you around.

Friends,

Sandi L.

Pam,

See you next year
I hope. Have fun this summer and keep cool
